Chuck Botsford - ceb_iii@yahoo.com

It has officially been a year since we had to greatly slow our Stangs because of Covid-19. Last year our first cancelled cruise was the St. Patrick's Day Poker Run and YIPEE we returned to that cruise this March. If all goes well, we should be returning to our monthly cruises and as you will see in this newsletter. April and May Cruises are already set and planned.

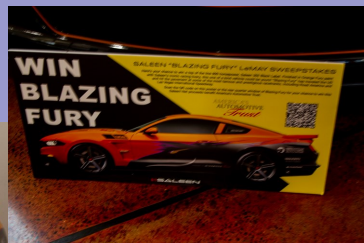

I, as well as the rest of the board, greatly appreciate all the patience as we journey through this unusual time. We have seen more coming to our Zoom meetings and good turnouts at our in-person events, masked and distanced. We are all hoping that we are turning the corner to a more positive, enjoyable, and social 2021.

With all of that said, do I have an opportunity for you..... I am in my 4th year as president of this club and have been doing the newsletter for 5 years at least. Here it comes..... your opportunity to step up and enjoy the fun. We are looking for a new Newsletter Editor. I will continue through May to help with the transition and will help with any training, if needed. Please let me know if you are interested in taking on this job. June will be your first Newsletter. I have enjoyed the learning experience and the opportunity that this job has provided me but it is time for another voice to be heard. Thank you for letting me take this on for the last few years.

Life is always an adventure
Let's enjoy the ride together

Car show Report:

1ST Car Show meeting was on Wednesday, March 10th.

Meeting went well. The Board was able to clarify the concerns about limiting the amount of new sponsors for the car show.

Discussed Classes, Budget and made a "Wish list" for new sponsors (i.e. 3rd and 4th Place Trophies, Dash Plaques etc.)

Next Car Show meeting will be held on Wednesday April 14, 2021 at 6:30 Via Zoom

Old Business:

Past Events:

Griots Tech Day: Thank you Anette and Chuck Botsford for a great day.

Annual Poker Run: What a great turn out. Last year this cruise was cancelled due to the Shut Down. A Year Later this was our First Cruise of the Year. Thank you Kathy and Jerry Murphy for putting this on.

New Club Location:

Titus-Will (when things open up). Parking is out on the street. They do have closer parking for those who need it. Parking lots are blocked by 8PM nightly.

2021 Picnic Coordinator: Thank you Charlene Rivera and her assistants have volunteered for another year.

New Business:

Annual Daffodil Parade:

There are no parades this year. Instead there will be a static display of Floats and Mustangs. The Daffodil Display will be at the Washington State Fairgrounds in Puyallup from April 7-11 and 14-18. We as a club decided we would participate on Saturday April 10. We will have 3 sessions that you can display your car. The schedule is as follows 10AM-1:30PM, 1:30-4:30PM and 4:30-7:30 PM. Look out for a PCMC Alert for more information on this event.

Upcoming Cruises:

April 18th National Mustang Day. More details on what we will do this year. Hank Deck will be putting this together.

Newsletter Editor Vacancy:

Our current Newsletter editor, Heidi Geise, is stepping down. She has been the editor since July 2014. The process of creating the monthly newsletter is fairly simple. Heidi will be more than happy to train you if you would like. If you would like to be the new editor, please contact Heidi Geise at pcmceditor@gmail.com.

Newsletter Bingo:

In our March newsletter you may have noticed something new called Ford Mustang Bingo. If you missed it no worries this will run again in April. Missy and Burt put together this fun bingo game. If you would like to win a prize, be the first one to complete the most squares on the form and send to Missy at maryhelenwillert@yahoo.com. Good Luck.

Door Prize winners:

$20 Gas Card: Clay Concannon

Mustang of the Month: Dan and Elizabeth Cobb

Meeting adjourned:

2021 Car Show Update

First-A big Thank You to all our sponsors! All accepted the two for one year offer instead of PCMC having to return their sponsorship money. Our Sponsors are Amazing!

Second-Thanks to the members who joined us at the March Car Show Committee Meeting. We discussed the Board's recommendations, the budget, pledged money, unfilled classes, new classes to add, suggested things to cut, and suggested things to add revenue for the show.

If you would like to be involved in planning the 2021 Mustang and All Ford Show - the next meeting is Wednesday April 14, 2021 on Zoom at 6:30. Please watch for an email from Nancy with the link.

I have put together a "Wishlist" for the car show - if you or you know a business that might be interested in sponsoring, please contact me at 360-459-3993 or rivalalarrycharlene@comcast.net

Mustang Wanted

Hi! My husband is looking to buy an old mustang (1965-1967). I want him to get one too! He is looking for one in good running condition. He has not had any luck finding one locally and I thought it might be a good idea to check with the local mustang lovers to see if they knew of one for sale. We live close to Puyallup (Steilacoom) and joining your club might be really fun once we get one. Anyway, if you hear of something, we would really appreciate hearing from you. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Kris and Bill Johnson (253) 584-5391

Past Events

Griot's Tech Day

March 6

Organized by Chuck and Anette Botsford

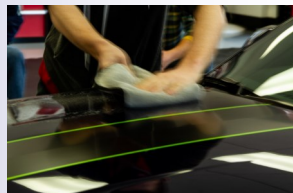

Was it going to rain or was it going to be sunny? Take the Pony out or leave it in? What's a little water on our hearty Mustangs? As it turned out, there was a little sprinkling but a nice day to get out and see a few club members and the new Griot's products. I think my husband's wallet was going through Griot's withdrawal. You know when you have been on a diet and deprive yourself of dessert and you have that "cheat day" and you eat the whole cake..... Now I have to go clean off a few shelves in the garage to make room....not for the cake.

So back on task, Heidi! Chuck and Anette organized a great event with Guy and others at Griot's. We got to see the new products and hear from the car care pros what to do to get our Mustangs ready for what hopefully will be a great car season.

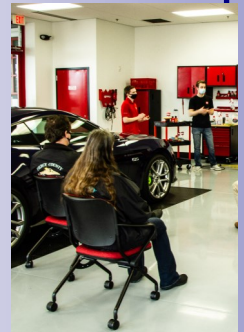

Just a warning, when we do these tech days, one car pulls into the garage and the pros demonstrate on one section of the hood. It is great to see the effectiveness of these products but, let's just say that when I am done clearing shelves for my husband's purchases I will be claying, polishing, waxing and washing the rest of the car.

We had a good turn out for the event and were within our Covid limits. We had 2 of our new members there. It was good to meet them and see familiar faces as well. We also had a visitor who went home to fill out the forms to be a member. While we were leaving, another person stopped us and I think he will be joining as well. And by the way, Guy's wife is a Mustang lover and we hope they make that purchase and join...just saying, Guy.

All-in-all a great day, thanks to all that organized it and put it on.

Next up, the Poker cruise.

St. Patrick's Day & Poker Run Cruise

March 14

Organized and Submitted by Kathy & Jerry Murphy

Photos by Nancy Freeman

The day started out looking like we would have a fair day for the cruise. However, just as we arrived at our 4th stop it appeared to be sprinkling. We did make it to our final destination and got into the restaurant before the rain caught us.

As usual with our Cruise and Poker run we had 5 points in the cruise at which we drew a card. As we have done in the past 50% of money collected went to the best hand, 30% went to the 2nd best hand and 20% to the third hand. Our three winners were 1st Butch Blodgett, 2nd was Pete Freeman and third was Clay Concannon. Normally in years past I made awards for several things during

In past years we handed out trophies (which I used to make special) for the three (3) worst poker hands. The bottom "worstest" hand went to Joi Curtis, the next hand up, the "worsted" hand went to Laurie Howe and the next hand up or the worst hand or the best of the 3 bottom hands was Joanie Nordland. One individual did not receive a dash plaque at the event, but it will be mailed to him as I ran out at the event.

I want to apologize to all who came out for our Cruise. Sometimes things just happen, however, most said that they had fun and the food was very good. The Owner and the family who run the restaurant were happy to see us and we did present a plaque stating that our club had been there on this day (the 14th of March). He immediately put it up beside the others that we presented to them at each of our visits. When you walk in, you can see each of the plaques we have presented to them. Very good food and service.

I want to thank everyone who took part in the cruise for your patience and understanding. See you on the next event for our club.

and after the cruise. However, this year I got caught up with several happenings and I did not get them done this year. I am sorry for that as we always had a little bit of fun with handing them out. We did have the three drawings for a prize at the three intermediate stops, a small clock at each one. The winners were Robert & Clay, Carol Patton and Monica Kirkland.

A Few Words from Club Members

Well here we are with the second installation from our members. Hope you are enjoying the stories and the food. If others want to contribute, just send your ideas my way.

Paul Geise: The Band—Part 2: Kinda How It Started

It all started in Jr. High. 1st guitar was a white solid body electric. I talked Mom into buying it at a variety store. I bought a couple of chord books, listened to records (round vinyl discs with a hole in the center), and learned from friends. It was VERY hard to play as the strings were way too far from the fretboard. And, yes my fingers bled. I mowed lawns, walked dogs, weeded, and washed cars, to earn money. Bought a "VOX" teardrop shaped 6 string & a very small "VOX" amp (it had 1 whole knob!). Got together with some guys from church- Clark (bass), Larry (drums), Lynn guitar.

The next band was w/ Mickey. Mickey was actually a very good bass player but wanted to do songs by "The Birds". These required a 12-string. He had a 12-string so he played that & I played bass. Mickey was 2 or 3 years older than me and taught me a lot on the bass. Mike was the drummer and Lynn was once again the rhythm guitarist, & Donnie... something was the keyboardist. (Donnie wrote a song about Harry Houdini...It was called "Harry...Quit Playing In the Water...You'll Hurt Yourself"). Played some school & church dances, but the big deal was a "BATTLE OF THE BANDS!!" in Winnemucca, Nevada. It was at the National Guard Armory. As a stage they used 3 flat-bed trailers. One band would be setting up outside, while one band was playing inside, while the last band to play was breaking down. When it was time to switch, they'd pull out one trailer and back in the next one, plug you in and away you'd go... actually pretty slick. We did NOT win, but some of us got arrested...I've been told not to go into details...

There were several bands between the "Winnemucca incident" and my first "road" band "Razz-Ma-Tazz". "Razz" was Steve H. ...guitar, Rod...vocals, Joey...drums, and me. We traveled in Rod's Chevy van and towed our equipment in a borrowed (Ok! Ok! ... stolen) U- haul trailer. (went through 2 or 3 sets of tires on that trailer) (also, got stopped once in Washington...thought uh-oh, they got us...but it was for expired tabs on the trailer. Got out of that one by getting our mgr. to tell the Nevada DOT he lost his tabs, paid $5 for new ones and sent them to us...BINGO BONGO!)

My main bass through ALL the road bands was a 1964 Fender Precision. Loved that thing! My other basses (back ups) were all kinds of different brands & models. But I always gravitated back to the "64 P' bass.

We played some local "gigs", but our first road gig was "The Golden Wheel Hotel" in Pocatello, Idaho. I was very excited! I believe we got paid $500 (not each) plus rooms at the hotel. It was a big deal whenever we got free rooms, as motels were pretty spendy for 4-6 people for 1 or 2 weeks. We had 4 rooms that shared a bathroom between two rooms. When you sat on the toilet you could pass the time (and other things) by looking up and studying the plumbing on the floor above you as the ceiling had rotted away. CLASSY!!! The band that played there before us, we knew & was from Reno also. The guitar player's parents had come up to see them. The parents had gotten rooms at the hotel also and as a result, his Mom & Dad had caught "the crabs" from the bedding! (Did I mention...CLASSY!!!!?)

The band would stay out on the road anywhere from 6 -12 weeks. Seeing as how the singer would sing almost every song 4 hours a night...minimum...5 nights a week, we had a tendency to go through singers pretty regularly. I would sing 3-4 songs a night just to give him a breather...but I was no lead singer. I would sing back-up & harmonize.

Once, we played for 3 nights at an NCO club on a base. Our drummer got very ill and we called Reno for a replacement. I think his name was Mitch. He was a decent drummer, just played too soft for a very loud rock & roll band. This drove Steve CRAZY! They would get into some pretty heated "discussions" I thought he was doing us a favor and we should make the best of it (after all it was only for 3 nights). The 1st night there weren't very many people there, but they seemed to like us. 2nd night the place was packed! We played very well, even w/ a replacement drummer! They put up with us at first, then they started to yell for "Funk". We were a R&R band, not a funk band and thus didn't have any funk material. Eventually, they got around to hating us, & the more they drank & the more we played, the rowdier they got. Finally at a break, I suggested we play "Superstitious" by Stevie Wonder, since we were familiar with it Rod didn't know the words but I knew most of them, so I sang what I could remember and slurred the rest. We opened the next set with it and the place went absolutely NUTS! Rod ...being the slick front man that he was... thanked them and said..."Now we're going to play something for you white folk!" Did I mention 90% of the crowd was African American? Well...it was!! My mouth fell open – Rod sauntered over to me and quietly said "Did I just say that?" I replied that I didn't know who he was and had never seen him before this. Then I quickly moved to the other side of the stage. Somehow we survived... I didn't talk to Rod for 2 weeks!

More stories to come.....if my wife allows!

InstaPot Adventures with Missy

Welcome back for the second try with the new InstaPot. My first adventure was very successful. I am hoping that my second and third endeavors will be just as successful. Last month I promised you Chili. I found a Chili recipe on Pinterest that looked interesting, so I gave it a go. I've been searching recipes on Pinterest and I have saved 65 InstaPot recipes I want to try. I settled on Blue Ribbon Instant Pot Chili Recipe by Kathy from <https://amomsimpression.com/instant-pot-chili-recipe/>. This was different from the Past Fagioli soup in that there would be no soaking of the beans. She used canned beans. Ok. Again, another fairly simple, easy and super quick recipe.

Prep Time: 10 minutes

Cook Time: 15 minutes

Total Time: 25 minutes

Servings: 4

Calories: 702

And no, I did not double the recipe this time.

Ingredients:

- 1 lb ground beef
- ½ cup chopped white onion
- 1 Tbl oil
- 2 cans 15.5 oz each, kidney beans, drained & rinsed
- 1 can 14.5 oz diced tomatoes
- 1 cup beef broth
- 1 Tbl chili powder
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- 1 tsp salt
- ½ tsp black pepper
- 2 tsp Worcestershire sauce

Instructions:

- Add beef, onion & oil to instapot & sauté
- Heat uncovered until meat is browned
- Add remaining ingredients & mix well
- Place lid & seal shut
- Set to pressure cook, high pressure for 5 minutes
- When cooking is complete, quick release steam & open pot
- Stir before serving top with shredded cheddar cheese optional

Again, cooking time does not include the time it takes for the InstaPot to come to pressure before it begins to cook. But seriously, how can you beat homemade Chili in 5 minutes??

Take Aways: oops, I forgot I did double this recipe.

Dad says more beans.

Hardly any liquid needs LOTS more

Dad said it was ok, but had not much taste in terms of seasoning

I searched Safeway and for the life of me could not find tabasco anywhere. So I got the Mexican kind. I'm familiar with that with as much time as I spend with Miguel's family. Besides, Miguel says that "I'm rolling with the Mexicans now"! oh that kid! Dad added more beans and 3 drops of the Mexican tabasco. Too much.

This one was NOT a success. I am hoping Carroll Shelby can help me out the next time I make Chili in the InstaPot. Yes, you read that right. My Shelby friends Scott & Kristen told me that is all they have used for several years. So, I found the mix at Safeway and will try it next time.

Next up was Pork Fried Rice. When I was growing up my mom made delicious Pork Fried Rice. I think this was another Pinterest recipe. I will spare you all the details and simply leave you with this:

GO TO SAFEWAY. There's no picture of the finished product. It was way too much work. It tasted awful. Now I have ingredients I will never use again in my cabinets. I don't even like Jasmine rice! BIG FAIL on this attempt. I will NEVER make this again. Not kidding. Go to SAFEWAY and buy theirs.

What's up next? Chicken Noodle Soup and an InstaPot cookbook! Stay tuned Pony faithful.
