June, the month summer begins. Time to bring the cars out! There are a ton of car shows listed online and Facebook and there's a show for every make, model, and year! It's so cool to see vintage and classic cars, trucks, and especially Mustangs while we travel freeways, highways, and around town.

This past Monday Dale and I were leaving Sacramento, California and heading back to Washington in our RV. We started noticing that there were a lot of shiny, almost spotless, Mustangs. I'm assuming they were heading home from the MCA car show in Suisun City, California. On southbound I-5 we also saw a lot of vintage and classic cars and trucks heading somewhere, probably another car show!

Since I'm talking about Suisun City, I would like to share a story with you.

We were in Sacramento to attend the funeral of my sister-in-law, Lynnette. Dale's brother Karl and his wife Lynnette are true car enthusiasts. Karl leans more towards Chevy and has restored his fair share of cars, as did Dale and their dad. Lynnette's sister Diane and her husband Ron are car enthusiasts, too. Cars run deep in this family's blood. Got it so far? Good. Now for the story part.

Diane and Ron live in the Reno Nevada area. Not only are they car enthusiasts, but they also own the top Mustang shop in the Reno area. Their shop is in Sparks, Nevada, and they have been in business for over 30 years. I heard many people say he is "The Guy" to see for Mustang repairs, restoration, parts, advice, and sales (he recently sold a classic Mustang for $350,000). Talking to Ron, I truly believe it. It was a joy to witness his passion and spark for Mustangs. Now I know it sounds like I'm advertising for Ron, but I'm not, I don't even know the name of his company. So, here's the rest of the story....

While having a conversation with Ron, he mentioned he was leaving the next morning for a weekend trip. Being interested in travel, I asked where he was going. He said, "Suisun City, California. That piqued my interest, and wanting to show my smarts, I told him the MCA car show is going on in Suisun City. Why I felt the need to tell him that is beyond me. He's a Mustang enthusiast, I'm sure he already knew that! Duh! So, instead of feeling smart, I was feeling a little ridiculous! He politely said he is indeed going to the car show. I asked him if he was showing one of his cars. With no grandiose in his voice, he said no, he is a judge at the show. Wait! What? Serious? Turns out Ron is a national judge and judges Mustangs all over the country.

Ron is also the President of the Reno Mustang Club and with that, I went on to tell him about our PCMC, our members, our activities, and that some of our members were showing their cars at the MCA show.

Later that day, I was reflecting on my conversation with Ron. I have only met Ron one other time about 20 years ago. I didn't know that much about him except that he likes Mustangs. The point of my story isn't that I think you should take your Mustang to his shop, nor am I trying to impress you with the fact that I know a national judge. What I am conveying is that this world is amazingly huge, but at times can seem very small. The more people we meet through our work, hobbies, interests, and the things we love, our world can get smaller and smaller. It's important and fun to get to know your fellow mustang enthusiast. You don't have to become best buds, but you might learn something very interesting about that person. Share something about yourself with others. Make this world a bit smaller. Dale and I never realized how many friends we would make just by sharing our passion for our favorite pony!

So, keep doing what you love, pursue your passions, keep your Mustangs fired up and see where it takes you!

Sandy

Progressive Dinner

May 14

Submitted by Nora Hennecken

Fourteen Mustang aficionados enjoyed scenic drives, great weather and warm hospitality during the May 14 progressive dinner. Delicious appetizers were served at the home of Nancy and Pete Freeman. Nora and Mark Hennecken had a hot taco bar waiting along with a fruit salad provided by Betty & Brian Purves, and Pam and Wayne Pistella had an array of tempting desserts.

Bonney Lake High School Car Show

May 7

Submitted by and Photos by Heidi Geise

We had a few club members show up to support Bonney Lake High School in their annual fundraiser car show.. The weather was a little "iffy" but our Stangs braved the elements and it turned out just fine.

There weren't many cars showing up and there was talk of canceling due to the weather. The kids said, "No, we want to have it".....and then our Mustangs started to show up. The kids greeted us like we were Santa bringing gifts. They were so excited and had worked very hard to put it together.

Congratulations to the kids for staying with it. They did a great job and the turnout increased as the morning progressed. For some of the students it was their first attempt at a show. For all of them it was the first one in 2 years. From this viewer's perspective, it appeared as if all were having a great time.

A small but hungry turnout for Saturday Morning Breakfast @ Buttered Biscuit in Sumner. We had to leave real early for a funeral but our food was really good and their warm buttered cornbread biscuit was amazing! Looking forward to dinner out in June @ Moctezuma's.
