Well, here we are, almost time for our car show!

This was my first sentence for last months President's Message. Now here we are, the car show has come and gone. Wow! It was a very busy and successful car show. It was really a fun day. Yes, we had to "work", but it was enjoyable as long as we kept the positive vibes going, smiled, and were patient with each other and our "guests" (attendees). I particularly enjoyed meeting all the people and seeing familiar faces. I didn't hear too many concerns from attendees except for the restroom situation. The Car Show Committee will be meeting this month to share feedback, positives, and brainstorm some new ideas. If you have any constructive input, concerns, positives, and/or ideas, please chat with a committee member.

Your PCMC Board will also begin brainstorming new ideas in preparation for next year. In this process we look at what we have done in the past, what is going on in the present, and access ideas and processes for the future. We welcome your ideas and thoughts, and we will include them in our Board discussions and assessments. Speaking to a Board member is a confidential and safe place to share your ideas, thoughts, and concerns. This is YOUR club, and we want to hear from YOU!

Now for some fun trivia.

Question: How does Sandy keep changing her hair style without ruining it?

Answer: She wears wigs. Yes, they are wigs!

I've had a lot of folks ask about my hair, my haircuts, hair styles, hair color, etc. Some folks have even walked right past me at car shows because my hair is so different, and they don't recognize me! History; I was a wig consultant until I retired. This was a "side business" for me. These aren't the wigs your grandma wore! So, my goal was to raise awareness about wigs and make it socially acceptable to wear them. People of all ages wear wigs due to illness, medical conditions and treatments, and like me, just for fun. Just as it's okay to not wear a wig and go with no hair, we need to be okay with others who like hair and want to wear a wig. There is strength and pride in both hair and no hair. There should be NO WEAKNESS, NO SHAME! Here's why I feel so strongly about this. A few years ago, at my Grandson's school there was a 12-year-old girl who had a rare disease that she was going to die from some day. It also made all her hair fall out. She always liked her hair, her bows and barrettes, so she decided to wear wigs. For years she was bullied and shamed about her wigs. One day, she had had enough, and she committed suicide at the age of 12. What a horrible end for this family just because of a wig! It was at this point I decided to raise social awareness and acceptance regarding wigs. So, if you feel strong and have pride when you are bald, then do it! If hair makes you feel bold and strong, then wear a wig with pride. Either way, have fun, smile, and hold your head high! Don't let others tell you who or what you should be, nor tell you how you should act or what you should wear. I'm sending love to all of you who are going through tough times. Your struggle is real and remember, it is YOUR fight, not theirs, so do whatever will make YOU feel good! I'm having a blast with my wigs, and when you see me next, I might have short, long, straight, or curly hair. It could be white, grey, blonde, or purple! Just smile and say, "she's at it again!"

Sandy

To be beautiful means to be yourself. You don't need to be accepted by others. You need to accept yourself.
~ Thich Nhat Hanh

Remember, not every person's battle, struggle, or illness is visible.

Be Kind.

As Car Show Season Begins:

As you register for shows, be sure to list the club affiliation as Pierce County Mustang Club rather than simply PCMC. Often there are awards for club participation and as there are 2 clubs with PCMC abbreviations it is easy to confuse the counters and lose credit.

Cruise to OysterFest

Saturday October 1st at 10:00 AM

We did this cruise about 6 years ago. We had 20 people in 9 Mustangs, 1 truck and a Motor Home. It was a little drizzly that day but it didn't put a damper on our things. If you have never been to OysterFest you will be surprised how much fun it is.

"OysterFest is the state's official Seafood Festival and home to the annual West Coast Oyster Shucking Championships. Guests can enjoy a massive selection of delicious seafood dishes including, of course, an assortment of fresh oysters prepared in myriad different ways. The festival also has a Microbrew Garden with its own music stage and a Wine Tasting area exclusively spotlighting Washington wines. Live Music throughout the day adds to the festive vibe"

We will meet in the Grocery Outlet parking lot on 6th Ave just down from the old Safeway lot where we used to meet.

Mustering at 9:30 - Departing at 10:00.

We'll head out over the picturesque Key Peninsula back roads with a pit stop at the Port of Allyn.

Letters of Appreciation

I'd like to thank everyone for your kind words, messages, emails, texts and cards after my dad's passing. It means a lot to me.

Missy

PCMC,
Thank you so much for the beautiful Hydrangea plant. We've already found the perfect place in the front yard.
You can be sure dad loves it as much as I do. Especially since he doesn't have to plant it.

Mustang of the Month

Hank & Margie Deck

2020 Wilver Eco-Boost Premium Convertible

Congratulations Hank & Margie!

Poets and song writers sometimes write about love found at an early age—a love that might wax and wane over the years but never quite goes away. Mustang owners understand this kind of attraction and Hank Deck is no exception.

His first Mustang love, acquired in 1970 for $900 when a sophomore at Bowling Green University subsisting on SpaghettiOs totted up with hamburger, was a 1966 plainest-of-the-Janes black, 6-cylinder, 3-speed. This affair was ultimately defeated by the car's inability to keep a working heater core in the freezing Buffalo, NY, winter of 1974.

He had a series of cars following, including flings with two corvettes, before settling into his forties with a nice Lincoln sedan. A mild-flirtation accompanied the Lincoln in 2000 when he purchased a 1966 in serious need of restoration. The work had just begun when a corporate change of plans forced a move and the would-have-been-a-beautiful-blue love had to be sold.

By 2014, the Lincoln line no longer appealed, and it was time to return to the beginning. He bought a 2014 race-red premium coupe and joined the Pierce County Mustang Club—two good decisions. She certainly totted up the garage.

During the 2020 Covid year, Hank and wife Margie spent a lot of time just driving. The red love looked great but didn't provide the most comfortable ride in the passenger seat, and all that motoring about included conversation about the attributes of a convertible—a plus absent since Margie had sold her Saturn Sky.

Conversation led to searching the web and after a lot of swiping left the new one was found in February 2021: the garage now boasts a much-admired 2020 silver Eco Boost Premium convertible. How long will she stay? It is hard to say. Mustang lovers are devoted but often suffer from a roaming eye.
