I don't know about you, but I am ready to "Let the Good Times Roll" with some better weather even if I have "No Particular Place to Go"! Compared to the subfreezing temps, snow and ice, March has come in like a Lamb, not a Lion. Hopefully you are beginning to find prospects to get out and about in your Mustangs. In February several of us enjoyed cruising, eating and friends while navigating from Tacoma to Olympia. March has a few more opportunities for our ponies to get out and stretch their legs.

03/04-Griot's Tech Session 11:00 am-Hennecken

03/07-PCMC Board Meeting Titus Will Ford 6:00 pm

03/14-PCMC Car Show Meeting Denny's S. Hill 6:00 pm-Monika & Nancy

Thanks to Nora for a great flyer and to Clay for putting together a fun day.

Be on the lookout for Fran and the Car Show Volunteer sheet. Every little bit helps.

Hope to see you at an event or two!

Twelve cars came out to have some fun. We enjoyed Johnson's Candy shop up on MLK Jr Way and found our way down to the Brown & Haley outlet store in Fife. From there we caravanned down to The Ranch House BBQ. You know the one with the BIG PIG out front. Award winning BBQ was enjoyed by all and even some chili too.

See you at March Brunch on the 25th at the Homestead Restaurant and Bakery

Member Rides by Tim Cleary

On Tuesday October 27th, 1964, my Dad took delivery on his new 1965 Mustang. It was delivered by Stuart Wilson Ford in Dearborn Michigan. My Dad was a chassis engineer at Ford and had been able to watch as the car rolled down the assembly line at The Rouge Plant

It was Vintage Burgundy with a Palomino interior. The ribbed sections of the seats were finished in nylon instead of the customary vinyl. I have seen the option listed in the 1965 Ford Buyers guide, but I have never seen another one like it. I was told by a Mustang parts dealer in Pennsylvania that it was only offered on cars built at the Rouge Plant, and was only available in Palomino or black.

The factory options he ordered were Cruise-O-Matic auto transmission, larger 650 WSW tires, rocker panel moldings, radio, electric wipers and washers.

Plate that would have been on my Dad's car

The dealer options added were remote control side mirror and rear seat belts. My Dad regularly watched crash tests at work, and was a fanatic about seat belts.

We drove the car for ten years and had many adventures in it.

I had been looking for a 1960s Ford and on Father's Day 2012, I attended a car show in Burien, Washington, and a man had a Vintage Burgundy Mustang Coupe for sale with Palomino interior. It was a V8 four speed car in mostly original condition. I gave the man $100 as a deposit and went to find my wife where she was having lunch nearby. The fellow selling the car bought it from an elderly neighbor, and gave me boxes of parts he had bought for it but never installed. He had redone the brakes, installed a dual exhaust, and electronic ignition. It had factory disc brakes which really feel like a modern car's brakes. "It really goes down the road great" he said, and it really does.

I had the car repainted the correct color, and had the front and rear glass replaced. I put new foam kit on the driver's seat, and installed a deluxe steering wheel like the one my Dad installed on his. I found a correct AM radio to replace the cassette player that had been installed and have been driving it a few times every week since I got it.

I went through the files he gave me on the car, and found out the owner he bought it from had bought it in 1971 and owned it for 49 years!

I am so glad to own a car like our family had and never walk through the garage without running my hand down the side of the fender or roof. I just can't believe I have a car so similar to the one from my boyhood. When I go out to eat, I always park by the window and stare at the car the whole time I am inside.

I have gone on some cruises with a local Mustang club in Seattle and enjoy seeing all the mostly newer cars in line in front of me. Sometimes, we take my wife's 2015 Mustang convertible also. They are 50 years apart, but both represent the Mustang spirit of a wild horse running across the plains.
